

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

M. E. Knepper's Grocery Specials

for Friday and Saturday

- Pears—
- Tomatoes—
- Peaches—
- Bananas—
- Oranges—
- Lemons—
- Watermelons—
- Musk Melons—
- Imported Macaroni, the best to be had, per box.....15¢
- Fresh bread always in stock.....
- Fresh, dainty cookies of all kinds.....
- New assortment of candy.....
- Bulk olives, sweet, sour and dill pickles.....
- Best Sugar cured Bacon, per lb.....22¢
- Best Lard, per lb.....14¢
- Pressed Ham, per lb.....14¢
- California Hams, per lb.....14¢
- Bulk Coffee, per lb.....25¢ and 30¢
- Cheese, mild, per lb.....20¢
- Agents for Chase & Sanborn's Coffee.....25¢, 30¢, 35¢ and 40¢
- Akron Wheatine—best breakfast food going.....5 lb sack for 25¢
- Shoes, Rubbers and Rubber Boots. All kinds of Dry Goods Notions.
- We have a complete line of Economy Fruit Jars, at cost price, to close out onces.
- We will close out our percales and calicos at cost in order to put in a line of glassware, lamps, etc.
- Call in and look at our No. 2 Gold Blast Lanterns.
- We are also closing our Shoe stock at cost. Come in and get a bargain before they are gone. We wish to use the room that they occupy for other goods.
- We have just received a large shipment of Tablets, large and small sizes, all for 5¢ each.

M. E. Knepper's Grocery DAKOTA CITY, NEB.

Local Items

Friday, Sept. 1, 1911

Fruit of all kinds at Van de Zedde's. Louis Larsen is helping out in the Krumwiede saloon.

Spices are but drugs, so why not buy the purest kind, at the Dakota City Pharmacy.

Mrs H Wesley Brown came down from Herriek, S D, Monday to visit until after the big picnic.

Mrs Marion Skeen of Cody, Nebr, arrived here Sunday for a week's visit at the home of her father, M O Ayres.

Judge R E Evans installed a new Chickering piano in his home Monday. The instrument was purchased through Prof Carl Schriever and is a beauty in tone and finish.

If you know of the value of Chamberlain's Liniment for lame back, soreness of the muscles, sprains and rheumatic pains, you would never wish to be without it. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs Etta M Spencer and family who recently went to Ft Morgan, Colo, for the benefit of Miss Marjorie's health, are now located at Hoyt, Colo, where they will reside with Mrs Spencer's son James.

Irvin Fisher and family, O W Fisher, John Miller and family, Jacob Leamer and family, all of this place, and Miss Lena Sand and Miss McGuire of Sioux City, spent Sunday with James Fisher and wife at Walt-hill.

George Brashier, who was sent here from Homer to serve a sentence in the county jail for vagrancy, was released Monday. His place in the county bastille was filled by Geo Gallagher, also of Homer, who was sentenced to two weeks by Justice McKinley for being drunk and disorderly.

Will Hileman, who has been assisting the Holtz boys on the new barn which Alfred Challie is erecting on his farm, fell from a scaffold last Thursday afternoon, striking on his head and shoulders. The scaffold on which he was working was about nine feet high, and the fall rendered him unconscious for a time. However, no bones were broken, and except for a soreness in his chest and neck, he is getting along nicely.

Real estate loans. Geo Wilkins.

The Teddy Bears will play at Homer Sunday.

The finest spices for preserving, at the Dakota City Pharmacy.

Buy a good farm on the Dakota county bottom. I have Eimers, it.

Al Pacey went to St Paul, Minn, last Friday on a business trip of several days.

Anna Lantzenbach, from near Ponca, visited at the home of her uncle, Fred Sund, the past week.

If you want to buy a No. 1 broom, look over Van de Zedde's assortment, he has them from 30c up.

Remember, crushed fruits of all kinds with ice cream, is served only at the Dakota City Pharmacy.

Mrs George Pranger came down from Wakefield Tuesday to visit friends the balance of the week.

Mrs Paul Kinkel and son, Wilfred, went to St Paul, Minn, Wednesday on a few months visit with relatives.

One hundred suits of gauze underwear, at actual cost price—to make room for winter goods. M E Knepper.

T T Lindsay arrived Wednesday from Pennsylvania to spend the winter at the home of his daughter. Mrs J F Sides.

Theo Bliven drove his car to Laurel and back last Friday, taking E A Fields and wife, of Sioux City, to that place on business.

Will Phillips arrived here Monday from a summer's sojourn in North Dakota, and will have charge of the Krumwiede pool hall.

A side curtain to a buggy found on the road southwest of town, was left at this office. Owner can have same by paying for this notice.

Gustav Gotlach, who is now conducting a butchery at Winnebago, was a visitor in town Monday evening. He ordered the Herald sent to his address after his return.

John L Hazlegrove and his mother returned last Thursday from Rochester, Minn. Will Hazlegrove, of Phoenix, N D, who was at Rochester for medical treatment, accompanied them home.

Fred Cornell came down from Danton, S D, Tuesday, bringing his stock and household goods. Mrs Cornell has been here for several weeks. They have located in South Sioux City for the winter.

The Sioux City Automobile club finally decided on a site for a speedway, taking a location near Riverside. The only objection to the Sides-Eimers tract at Crystal lake was the bridge toll and from Sioux City.

In the assignment of teachers by the Sioux City school board appears the names of Misses Lillian Orr and Mildred Burkett, of this place, Miss Emma Bliven and Mrs F W Swingle, both former residents of this county.

Fred Bunge writes to change his address on the Herald from McClusky to Alta, N D. He says they had plenty of rain during August and that hay was good; wheat, fair; flax, fine. Just north of him they were hailed out.

Will Rung lost control of his auto while coming to the picnic Thursday and the machine turned turtle near Will H Orr's place. Mr Rung was caught under the car and sustained a broken leg. The two men with him escaped with slight injuries.

Miss Mary Easton arrived home on Monday from a six weeks' tour of the Pacific coast, returning by way of Sao, Mont, where her brother, A E Easton, is running a drug store. She filed on a claim near Sao, and will go there in February to reside.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs Paul Pizey and daughter went to Randolph, Iowa, last Saturday, where they will visit with Mrs Pizey's parents until the latter part of this week, when they will accompany Mr Pizey on their trip to Boise, Idaho, their future home. The people of Dakota City are sorry to lose this estimable family.

Few, if any, medicines have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

The W O W picnic at Homer last Saturday drew a large crowd of visitors, and all attending say it was the biggest picnic of the kind ever pulled off in the county. Coy Aldrich was the principal speaker and the drawing card for the day. The ball game between Homer and Rosalia went to the former, 13 to 12.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H W Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

The joint session of the Dakota and Thurston county institute held at Emerson last week was one of the most instructive and interesting sessions held in years. Supts Tarrant of Thurston and Voss of this county were in charge of the joint meeting. By combining forces a much better corps of instructors was secured than if separate sessions were held in each county. The attendance was very gratifying, there being fifty-five teachers in attendance from this county.

The Dakota City ball team went to Akron, Iowa, last Saturday to play a date with the fast aggregation of that place. A bunch of errors in the last few innings gave Akron the game, 9 to 6. Lendrosch, for the Teddy Bears, held the Iowa bunch to 7 hits, while the Bears copped 10 hits from the Akron pitcher—one of them a home run by McAllister. The team went to LeMars, Ia, Sunday for an exhibition, but owing to wet grounds the game was canceled. The trips to both places were made by auto, several cars of rooters accompanying them.

30th Annual Reunion a Hummer.

A perfect day and one of the largest crowds in the history of the association greeted the Pioneers and Old Settlers at their thirtieth annual reunion held in Dakota City yesterday. Long before noon the crowd began to assemble at Clinton park, where Reed's band of Sioux City discoursed music during the day and where the old timers exchanged greetings with others who had come for many miles to grasp the hand of some one they knew in the early days.

Governor Chester A Aldrich, the speaker of the day, was late in arriving, and gave his talk after the dinner hour. He dwelt on the early history of Nebraska and told of the resources of this great state, the character of its people, its state and educational institutions. He also paid a splendid tribute to old settlers, whom he classed as the best of the union soldiers who made real starts after the war. His talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all who could get within reach of his voice.

The sports of the afternoon included a bell game between Homer and Dakota City for a purse of $20, which was won by the Teddy Bears, 11 to 8. M Beacom's horse, from Hubbard, won first money in both trotting races.

The following officers and committees for the coming year were chosen at the business meeting of the association:

President—Will H Ryan.
Vice President—George A. Hessing.
Secretary—George Wilkins.
Assistant Secretary—Mrs. D. M. Neilsen.
Financial Secretary—G. Gribble.
Historian—M. M. Warner.
Treasurer—Geo. T. Woods.
Executive Committee—St. John's, John Bolter, Covington, J. W. Hazelgrove, Dakota, I. W. Fisher, Omaha, Wm. H. Ryan, Pioneer Creek, Frank H. Way, Summit, Mike Beacom, Emerson, Fred Blume, Hubbard, R. D. Rockwell.
Badge Committee—Mrs. Fannie Crozier and Mrs. Eva L. Orr.

The following memorial report was read by Secretary George Wilkins:

J. W. Davis, Jr., aged 29 years, died at Jackson, Neb., Sunday, August 27, 1911. He was born and reared in Dakota county and was one of its best young men.

On Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1911, Mrs. May Metz, aged 32 years, departed this life at her home in South Sioux City. She was a kind, helpful woman and is missed by a host of friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wernick died at the home of her son, O. A. Barber, near Jackson, Neb., at the age of 71 years. She had been a resident of this county for a number of years.

Frank Knudsen, aged 16 years, died at his home near Homer, Neb., Friday, October 20, 1911. He was born and reared in this county.

On Monday, October 23, 1911, A. Frederick Berger answered to the call of the grim reaper at his home in Homer, Neb. He was a sturdy pioneer, and by his untiring efforts attained a handsome competence. He served his country during the civil war in company I, 2nd Nebraska cavalry.

Wm. Biggs, formerly a resident of this county, died at his home in Keweenaw, Neb., Sunday, Nov. 7, 1910, at the age of 61 years.

John Nunn, a former resident of this county, died at his home in Winnebago, Neb., Wednesday, November 9, 1910, at the age of 71 years. He was one of those noted among the older settlers of this county.

Mrs. Patrick Rush died in a Sioux City hospital at the age of 78. She came to this county a number of years ago.

On Wednesday, November 23, 1910, Mrs. T. J. O'Connor, aged 38 years, crossed the dark river at her home in Homer, Neb. She was a kind hearted, christian lady, and was admired by all who knew her.

Mrs. Margaret Broyles died at the home of her son, G. F. Broyles, at Dakota City, Monday, November 28, 1910, at the ripe old age of 81 years. She was one of those noted christian women and leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Etta L. Osman, aged 81 years, passed away at her home in Omaha, Neb., Monday, Nov. 28, 1910.

Porter Boala is on a land-seeking trip to Idaho.

E H Cornell and wife Sundayed in Ponca with relatives.

Mrs Jas Otradosky, of Cedar Bluffs, Neb, was a guest at the John F Sides home for the week.

H H Abel, a former Dakota county boy, now living at Vermilion, S D, came down to attend the Old Settlers.

Mrs Thos Christopherson and daughters, of Maple, Minn, spent several days last week at the Alfred Seymour home.

George and Ben Bayhs, of Niobrara, old time residents of this place, came down Wednesday to be in attendance at the Old Settlers picnic.

Why is it that everybody likes Breun's coffee? because it is the very best coffee on the market for the money. Van de Zedde sells it.

Beginning today, Sept 1st, all incoming and outgoing mail will be classified and counted for one month, in the office at Dakota, Neb.

Fred Blume and Ben Bonderson returned home last week from Rochester, Minn, where they were taking treatment at the Mayo hospital, the former for heart trouble, the latter for rheumatism.

Mrs Lucinda Stotter, of Union, Neb, and Mrs E J Taylor, of Geneva, Neb, sisters of N D Snyder, came to spend the week and take in the big picnic. This is the first time in 28 years the brother and sisters had met.

Fred Schmidt arrived here Saturday from his claim near New Underwood, S D, with his stock and household goods. His wife and children came last week, and they will take up their residence here for the present.

Burt Brasfield came down from Owanka, S D, Sunday, and will likely spend the winter here. He, like many others, states that grain sowed last spring is just now coming up, as they had no rain all summer until the last few weeks.

Rev W C Eckhart received a telegram Monday stating that his brother, George Eckhart, had died Saturday, at his home at Eureka, Calif. Deceased was about 35 years of age, and was born in Dakota county, where he resided until about the age of ten.

Running up and down stairs, sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

Among those who came from away to attend the picnic were Mrs Helen E Weeks, of Rosebud, S D; Dr E J DeBell, Westpoint, Neb; Tod Christopherson and wife, and Will Lameck, Wymot; Grant Smith, Sergeant Bluff, Iowa; Ernest Paulsen, Wayne, away at her home in Los Angeles, Calif., Thursday, December 10, 1910. She formerly resided in this county, was a good, christian lady and highly respected.

Rev P. F. McCarthy died at St. James Orphanage, at Omaha, Tuesday, December 13, 1910. He had charge of St. Patrick's Catholic church at Jackson for a number of years and is missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Horace Patton, one of the pioneer women of this county, died at her home near Dakota City, Wednesday, December 20, 1910, at the age of 76 years. She was a kind, christian woman, and was admired by a wide circle of friends.

On Thursday, December 23, 1910, Mrs. J. E. DeWalt crossed the dark valley in the death of her home in Monmouth, Ia. She grew to womanhood in this county, was a noble, christian woman and leaves a host of friends and acquaintances to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Fred Beerman, aged 60 years, passed to the great beyond, Thursday, January 5, 1911. She was a noble, christian woman and spent nearly all of her life in this county.

Isaac Fouts died at his home in South Sioux City, January 12, 1911, at the age of 82. He came to Dakota county 34 years ago.

Wm. Leedom, formerly of this county, died at his home in Huntington, California, at the age of 34 years. He was a good man and leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss. His death occurred Jan. 12, 1911.

Stephen M. Rockwell, better known as "Uncle Steve" Rockwell, died at Homer, Neb., Monday, January 16, 1911, at the age of 78 years. He was a quiet, respected citizen, and was one of the early settlers of this county.

Mrs Anna Kloster, aged 75 years, died at the home of her son, Henry Kloster, in Sioux City, January 16, 1911. She resided in this county until about 15 years ago.

August Isenber, aged 74 years, answered the final summons at his home near Emerson, Monday, January 23, 1911. He was a highly respected citizen and is missed by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Bertha Parker-Spode died at the home of her parents, W. E. Parker and wife, South Sioux City, Jan. 28, 1911, at the age of 25.

Wm. Cheney came to Dakota county in 1852, crossed the dark valley of death at his home near Dakota City, Sunday, January 29, 1911, at the age of 79 years; was an honored, respected citizen and was held in high esteem by his large number of friends and acquaintances.

A. C. Carroll, departed this life at his home in Sioux Falls, S D, at the age of 69 years, and had resided in this county up to about a year ago. He crossed the dark river Jan. 29.

Grace Wood, aged 15 years, died at Homer, Friday, February 3, 1911. She was a noble member of the Homer high school, and would have graduated at the close of the term.

Mrs. M. Nixon, a pioneer resident of Homer, passed to his eternal home, February 5, 1911, at the age of 82 years. He had spent nearly all his life in this county.

Stella Miller, aged 4 years, died at her home in South Sioux City, Monday, February 6, 1911. She had resided in this county for fifteen years.

Cook D. Crittfield, a former resident of this county, died at South Bend, Washington, Monday, February 6, 1911, at the age of 62 years.

Mrs. Patrick Dempsey passed away at his home near Ponca, Neb., Tuesday, February 7, 1911, at the age of 81 years. She formerly resided in this county.

John Hessing, a sturdy pioneer of 1857, departed this life at his home near Jackson, Monday, February 20, 1911, at the age of 79 years. He served his country in the war of the rebellion in Co. 12nd Neb. cavalry and took great interest in this association.

John McKinnon, who was one of the early settlers of this county, passed to the great beyond at the home of his son, Mrs. J. W. DeForest, at South Sioux City, February 23, 1911, at the age of 80 years; was a highly respected citizen in this county.

Henry Powell, who came to Dakota county in 1857, and died at his home in Jackson, Neb., on Wednesday, March 1, 1911, at the age of 81 years, was a quiet and peaceful citizen.

Perle L. Tucker died at his home in Phillips, Neb., Friday, March 3, 1911, at the age of 28 years. He formerly resided in this county.

Mrs. Clara Berger Orr, aged 99 years, departed this life March 6, 1911, at her home in Dakota City. She was a noble woman in this community, was a model wife and mother, and held in the highest esteem by the entire community.

Peter McShane came to this county 38 years ago, died at his home near Hubbard, Saturday, March 11, 1911, at the age of 82 years.

Robert L. Oxford, aged 68, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. L. Tolson, near South Sioux City, Sunday, March 12, 1911. He had resided in this county a number of years.

On Tuesday, March 14, 1911, Martha Helen Liska, crossed the dark river of death at her home near Dakota City. She was 21 years of age, grew to womanhood in this county and was beloved by a wide circle of friends.

At George Hildebrand died at her home in South Sioux City, Sunday, March 12, 1911, at the age of 70 years. She came to this county a number of years ago.

Arthur Campbell, who died at his home in Emerson, Tuesday, March 21, 1911, at the age of 61 years, came to Dakota county 31 years ago.

D. C. Dibble, came to Dakota County 38 years ago, died at his home in Palo Alto, Calif., Thursday, March 23, 1911. He was held in high esteem in this community.

Fred Melvin, a former resident of this county, died at his home in Jefferson, S. D., Saturday, April 1, 1911.

Mrs. Catherine Hansen, aged 74, died at the home of her son, Fred Hansen, near Dakota City, Saturday, April 1, 1911. She came to Dakota county about ten years ago.

Mrs. Clyde Reeves died at her home near Winnebago, April 1, 1911. She was born and reared in this county.

J. F. Naffziger, formerly a resident of this county, died at his home in Denver, Col., on Tuesday, April 11, 1911, at the age of 42 years.

Mrs. Phyllis Goodsell died at Homer, Friday, April 21, 1911, at the age of 64. She was a kind hearted, christian woman and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Josephine J. Wellington, aged 62, died at her home near Alton, April 16, 1911. She came to Dakota county about 31 years ago.

On Tuesday, April 25, 1911, Mrs. Ezra Van Cleave died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles J. DeWitt, near Ponca, Neb., at the age of 78. She had resided in this county 30 years ago.

Frank Lampton, formerly a resident of this county, died in a Sioux City hospital, April 25, 1911.

John Zastrow, of Nacora, aged 76, died in a hospital at Jackson, Neb., April 25, 1911.

Albert Pomrehn, who died at Pender, May 7, 1911, at the age of 88, had lived here the greater part of his life.

James Ashley died at his home near DeSmet, May 12, 1911. He was one of the early settlers of this county and was respected by all who knew him.

Leonard Kræger, who passed to his reward May 17, 1911, at his home in South Sioux City, at the age of 66, was a prominent man, took great interest in this association and is missed by a large circle of friends.

John O'Connor, of Nacora, aged 68, who died in a Sioux City hospital, May 29, 1911, spent nearly his entire life here.

On Tuesday, July 4, 1911, Jane Don passed to the great beyond at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Libbie Forbes, near Dakota City, at the age of 88 years. She was one of the pioneer women and was a noble, christian woman.

David Weston, who was born and reared in this county, died at his home in Omaha, at the age of 7.

Mitchell Hattenbach, another of the old residents of this county, died at his home in Cherokee, Iowa, August 6, 1911 at the age of 82 years.

Albert Lamson, who was born and reared in Dakota county, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Sheldon, of Walthill, at the age of 60 years. He passed away July 15, 1911.

Wm. H. Crahan, aged 48, who died at his home at Emerson, July 15, 1911, came to Dakota county a number of years ago.

W. W. Knowlton, aged 65, died in a Sioux City hospital, July 17, 1911. He was a good man, respected by all who knew him and took great interest in this association.

Henry Bartels, aged 88, who died at his home near Dakota City, July 29, 1911, was a quiet, peaceful and respected citizen of this county.

Marie Hollman crossed the dark river of death at the home of her brother, O. S. Hollman, of Sioux City, Iowa, August 6, 1911, at the age of 89. She grew up to womanhood here, and had been an invalid nearly all her life.

Gustav Berger, who came to this county in 1860, entered into his eternal rest at the home of Will H. Orr, near Dakota City, August 11, 1911, at the age of 81. He was a good man, took great interest in this association and served his country in the war of the rebellion.

Mrs. Clara Welsh, of Hubbard, died in a Sioux City hospital, August 17, 1911, age 27. She had resided in this county nearly all her life.

George A. Eckhart, aged 80, died at his home in Los Angeles, Calif., August 26, 1911. He was born and reared in this county.

"W.B." Western Brew

HOSPITALITY:
Serve the evening guests with a cold "W. B." and sandwich.

W.B. For Sale at all Dealers

MR. LAND AGENT

We control 53,000 acres of irrigable land in Southeastern Wyoming; part open to entry under Carey Act. Six hundred miles west of Omaha, two hundred miles north of Denver and seventy-two miles north of Cheyenne; water now delivered; elevation 4700 feet. The richness of the Valley is not problematical, but a proven fact as shown by thirty thousand acres of highly developed land on which water has been used for upwards of ten years and which now is producing wonderful yields of alfalfa, small grains and sugar beets.

Terms Exceptionly Low. Price Forty Dollars:

We are going to be represented in your territory by a man who can produce business. There is big money in this for that man. We are spending our money to reach him. If it's you write us.

Macalister, Canning & Company,
Broadway & Main Sts. Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Undertaker—County Coroner.

B. F. SAWYER was born May 3, 1850 in Mansfield, Mass. He started as an apprentice for three years in the Undertaking business in New York City with the largest firm in the city, remaining with them for five years. He has followed the profession ever since, coming to Jackson, Neb., in 1880 and starting the business here. He has one of the best equipped Undertaking Parlors in the state, with commodious quarters, lady assistant, fine hearse and equipment and a large stock always on hand.

He understands all the successful methods of embalming and makes a specialty of the Mico system, which preserves the remains forever, requires no cutting or excision of the body, and takes nothing away nor adds anything to the subject, the thorough embalming being done exclusively by external methods.

B. F. Sawyer, Jackson, Nebraska

Sept'mb'r Travel Bulletin

The excursion rates to Eastern localities will continue. It is your last low rate chance of the summer to visit your old home or make a tour of the East.

The Dry Farming Congress will be held at Colorado Springs, October 16-20. Special rates will be made.

The outlook is one way rates to the Pacific Coast are in effect September 15 to October 15th, only this year.

The Burlington has through standard and tourist sleepers every day to California—on No. 3 via Rio Grand, scenic Colorado, and the Southern Pacific and Salt Lake routes; on No. 9 via the Rio Grande and the Western Pacific.

"On Time" operation—West-rn people living in the territory served by the Burlington will be interested in knowing something about the punctuality with which the managing committee tries to operate its trains. Fast mail No. 7, from Chicago to Omaha during the months from April to July inclusive, a period of 122 days, arrived at the Missouri river "On Time" every day. The other exclusive fast mail and express train No. 15, from Chicago to Omaha during June and July, arrived "On Time" at the Missouri River every day. These are the exclusive fast mail and express trains that daily bring into the west the great volume of mail so necessary to the social and commercial life of that region.

W. E. Sneathen, Agent, Dakota City, Nebr.
L. W. WARELY, G. P. A. Omaha, Neb
1094 Fernam street.

HARNESSES

Everything in the line of Harness and Horse Goods

We have a big line of Horse Blankets, Fur Robes and Blankets in stock, and lots more coming. Look over our stock of Fall Goods.

Our new stock of Whips has arrived and are selling at greatly reduced prices.

Repair Work Given Prompt Attention

Sole Agent for Baum's Hog Tonic, Best on the Market.

Fredricksen & Son
Hubbard Nebraska

STATE FAIR

SEPT. 4TH to 8TH 1911

LINCOLN

THE STATE'S BEST PRODUCTS

TWO AEROPLANES IN DAILY FLIGHTS
LIBERATI MILITARY BAND AND
GRAND OPERA COMPANY OF 61 PEOPLE
GREAT RACES PATTERSON SHOWS,
FIREWORKS, NIGHT RACES, VAUDEVILLE.

STINSON'S

Specials for Sat., Sept. 2

For this Day Only

- Best Rice, per lb..... 5c
- 25c Bulk Coffee, per lb..... 20c
- 1 lb Best Pink Salmon..... 13c
- Can Strawberries..... 10c
- 7 Bars White Flake Soap..... 25c
- Can of Extra June Peas..... 10c
- Any Color of our 7-cent Calico— at 6 1/2c per yrd

Melons and Fresh Fruits

always on ice

S. A. Stinson

Dakota City, Nebraska